HAVANA, April 30, 1854. Opinions with Respect to the Royal Amnesty Decree-The Capsain General's Real Interest in the Future of Cuba— Working of the Emancipado System—Unfitness of the Negroes for a Military Life, de.

I had only time for a brief note by the Empire City. yesterday, which was of little consequence, following the full advice of the day previous, per Black Warrior, which vessel was permitted to enter and clear with stu-dious attention, by the complacent officials of the Custom

The commentary made here by the old Spaniards upon the royal amnesty order, is not very flattering to the nerve of the ministry, nor quite consistent with their Own self-respect, as long as they love to dwell under the Shadow of royally and lick the dast from the foot of the throne. It is supposed here, by those who are aware of the deep sentiment of hatred to the mother country entertained by the refugees in foreign lands, from Cubs, that it will only be effective for the ad-vantage of these who have been constrained to absent themselves from the mother land, and to reside in the colonies. Through its beneficent action we may possibly lose part of the talent now profitably occupied with the editorial management of the Digrio de la Marina, which would be a great loss to the unmixed Spanish race, as that gentleman is exceedingly devoted the expense of harmony in every other branch of the instrument. Whether negro slavery or negro freethe instrument. Whether negro slavery or negro free-dom is the theme—peace or war—Black Warrior or the gallant dragoon of the Resguardas—Mexico or California—Christianization and civilization or Africanization and berbarism—Spanish philanthropy, justice, or hidalgo honor—the rights of man—natural and national law— international obligation, comity or polity—benevolence or the lynch doctrines of their neighbors—alike the results, alike the root, "the race!" developing the same flowers and fruit. "The race!" God speed the man if he goes, and keep him if he stays, for there will need be. need be.
The half announced telegraphic despatch received by the Black Warrior, intimating a political disturbance at larcelora, has very much excited the storewing combattly population and the blood lapping bounds of powers at they are not apt to do anything by halves, we expect b hear more of the affair by the next arrival. The Calains constitute the Spanish democracy, in one sense—her wish to have everything their own way—no power to live without them, and no favor to be bestowed apon others and in commerce, trades and arts, they are the Spanish Yankees, having the intelligence, enterprise and industry that entitle them to the humorary comparison. As the Catalans determine, under the restraint of a superior extraneous force that cannot be disturbed with impenity, so must be the fate of Spain, or the fate of Cuba—which has ever been the land of promise to their hopes, and of resility to their venality and their pocests. Under the present state of political excitement in Cuba, although they are slow to move, are of long endurance, and mayhap of unchristian fortitude and resignation, they pay no shiped homoge to the purity of their Queen, and will be more likely to side with the oppressed of Cuba than with the government, for the reason that their pecuniary interests will be better served under a white improved social organization than under a black brotalized despotism that must have its basis commented with white blood. The order of amnesty was long sipce suggested and commended to the clement consideration and disposition of the Queen, by General José de la Concha, before he left Cuba, and, after the lapse of several years, comes to be effective of the grace of his royal mistress, when he himself is a banished subject, for having thought honestly and spoken holdy for the honor and the propenity of the present of the single perspectation of the island children (of maternal solicitude and regard) for the homeland of "the race." It is said by persons having infinite restoring the affection of the island of Cuba, that when he and his brother (political secretary) get thro of Culs may rest upon them. The incongruous material thrown into the intimate relations of soldiership with their while troops might cause, at a moment least expected, utter destruction of a given position which, without reflection, or from the necessity of details for the regular performance and division of military duty, might be entrusted to them. The belief is certainly impressed upon the minds of all intelligent Spaniards that the negro cannot stand fire. Those who are familiar from childhood with African character—in his native jungles at home, where they have helped in his capture—and in the more advanced stage of Christian civilization as found in Cubs, where they have held the same subjects for years in bondage, and where they have known some of their own captives, working through all obstacles, to the purchase of their freedom, and now living in free homes of comfort with large families in Havana, having established segar factories, butcheries, &c.—these persons tell me that they know well that the material cannot be cultivated to stand the discharge of frearms. The negroes entered at Trinidad, for remote freedom, as I am advised by R., were seven hundred, in place of the number given in my report. These speculations are entifely under the control of the Portuguese speculators, and the late sales have been made with a handsome return to the outfilters of the enterprise. The statement as to the landings cast of Cardenas, are confirmed. The Cahawba we have been looking for all day, but she comes not. As ever, yours at command.

Reception of Ex-Precident Fillmore at Nash-

Reception of Ex-President Fillmore at Nash-

Reception of Ex-President Fillmore at Nashville.

[From the Nashville American, May 5.]

Ex-President Fillmore and Hon. J. P. Rennedy, former Secretary of the Navy, arrived in this city yesterday at 10 o'clock, by the cars from Chattanooga, in company with the committee appointed to meet him, viz.—Hon. Washington Barrow. Col. Willo. Williams, Hon. Andrew Ewing, S. R. Cockrill, R. N. Williams, and R. W. McGawock, Eagus. They were received at the depot by the Committee of Reception, military and fire companies, and a large body of ladies and gentlemen in carriages and on foot, and escorted through the principal streets to the public square, in front of the Nashville Inn. Here, in the presence of a very large assemblage, the ex-President and his compagnen du coyage were welcomed to the city by cs. Gov. NeillS. Brown, in an cloquent and appropriate address Mr. Fillmore responded briefly and in good taste, expressing warmly his acknowledgments for the manner of his reception, and referring in moderate terms to the allusions made by the orator of the day to his administration of the public affairs. Mr. Kennedy also responded in a happy and appropriate style. At the conclusion of Mr. K.'s remarks, Hon. Andrew Ewing was called upon, and made a few apologetical observations.

After the reception the distinguished gnests were conducted to the Nashville Inn. where a suit of rooms had been prepared by the gentiamanly proprietor, Dr. Scott, and where they were called on during the day by large numbers of ladies and gentlemen. In the evening, at four o'clock, a very sumptuous table was spread—gotten up in the Doctor's best style.

P. To-day ex-President Fillmore and Mr. Kennedy will visit the Capitol, and receive their friends in the hall of the House of Representatives, until 12 o'clock. During the evening leave the city on their return home, via Charleston.

War Sympathy Meeting in Mos

A meeting was held in Mentreal on the 4th instant to express sympathy with the two great Powers of Europe who are now battling against Russia. A number of loyal eches were made by the dignitaries of the city, and e following resolutions were adopted :-

The following resolutions were adopted:

P Resolved, That at this momentous period, when the peace of Europe has been broken, and the British dominions exposed to the risks of war, it becomes the duty of the citizens of Montreal to express to her Majesty the nasurance of their cordial and united support in the concentration of the conflict of the conflict of the property of the conflict of the property of the conflict of the period of the property of the conflict of the property of the conflict of the property of the conflict of the property of the period of the property which pervade this Province of her Majesty's dominions, the citizens of Montreal cannot withhold their expression of their warmest sympathy for those of their show subjects who may be personally engaged in this portant and unprovoked contest.

Soolved, That while we lumbly invoke the Almighty not of the Universe to avert from this Province the mission of war, and to restore peace to Europe, we will the property of the proper

MONEY MARKET.

WEDNESDAY, May 10-6 P. M. We have nothing new to report in the stock market. There was a slight improvement at the first board in some of the leading fancies, but there was no life or spirit among operators, and we have no idea that any advance can for the present be sustained. Illinois Central bonds went up ½ per cent.; Harlem, ½; Erie Railroad, ½; Reading Railroad, ½; New Haven Railroad, ½; Michigan Southern Railroad, ½; New York Central bonds declined 2 per cent; Crystal Palace, 12; Parker Vein, ⅓; Indiana Construction Railroad, 3. The transactions were limited, but as usual operations on time comprised the bulk of business. The decline in New York Central bonds to-day was not unexpected to those who had carefully investigated the company's finances, and a further depre-ciation is looked for. An issue of five millions of dollars in new bonds will be more than the market can stand at present prices. There is no disposition on the part of capitalists to engage in any new enterprise, or to in-volve themselves in any of those which have for some time past been in the market, and it is this apathy on the part of those who have heretofore been most prominent in all speculative movements, that has produced such a dull and depressed state of things at the Stock Exchange and in the street generally. It is folly to look for good news from Europe by any steamer now due or nearly due. While the war is going on, we cannot expect anything relative to financial or commercial operations in Europe of a more favorable character than that which has recently come to hand. In the event of Sir Charles Napier meeting with any decided success in the Baltic, there may be some improvement in the stock market on both sides of the Atlantic; but even under these circumstances, we doubt if it would be otherwise than temperary. It is our impression that the market value of stocks will not vary much either way for some time. There is not much probability of any improvement, and med o not see how prices for the bulk of stocks can be much more depressed. A heavy, dull, steady market will, without doubt, rule for a time, and those who are fortunate enough to hold dividend paying securities must be content, and patiently wait the course of events; while those who hold unproductive stocks must make the best of their position, and pray for that good time which has been so long coming.

and bonds will take place to morrow, (Thursday,) at half-past 12 o'clock, at the Merchants' Exchange. Bids for the first mortgage bonds of the New York and Harlem Railroad Company were opened at the office of Messrs. Blatchford & Rainsford, No. 58 Wall street, at 3 o'clock this afternoon. The whole amount of bids largely exceeded the required sum—seventeen hundred thousand dollars—and the successful bids averaged 94% per cent. The range was from 92 33-100 to 95 66-100 per cent. Under existing circumstances, these prices are very fair, and those who have been fortunate enough to have obtained them, have a good margin in their favor for a rise. When we see New York Central first mortgage bonds selling at 86 per cent, the above sale is as high as the company could have expected. For some days past the money market has been steadily tightening, and confidence has been gradually disappearing. Capitalists have been afraid to touch anything, preferring to place their funds where they can be made available any mo-

The election of officers of the Stock Exchange was held on Monday, when the following gentlemen were cho-sen:—Charles R. Marvin, President; M. A. Wheelock, Vice President; J. W. Bleecker, Treasurer; B. Hart, Secretary; G. H. Brodhead, Assistant Secretary; E. A. Shipman, Roll Keeper.

We understand that the company, in the first working year of its existence, is sending more coal to market per annum than was mined by the Delaware and Hudson Company in any year until after 1847, a period of more than fifteen years after the completion of its works. It took the Lehigh district a quarter of a century to produce 320,000 tons, and the whole Schuylkill region was ten years in producing 340,000 tons per annum. The increase of demand for Cumberland is without parallel. Thus far this week the receipts of coal have averaged 1,250 tons per day.

Upwards of twenty-one million of dollars have been paid, in principal and premium, on the public debt of the United States, since the 4th of March, 1853-a period of little more than one year. More than one-quarter of the entire indebtedness of the federal government has been liquidated within the past twelve months, in advance of its maturing ten and fifteen years. The surplus revenue now in the Treasury is equal to more than one-half of Foreign Markets.

Ensearon, Ja., April 20.—We have still to report agreat deal of duiness in the import market, with a general increase of supplies. Dealers cannot be induced to speculate, though in some instances prices have declined to a trifling extent, and in others holders are willing to submit to still lower terms. In the produce mater, there is also considerable inactivity. Sugar is in large supply, and in consequence of the continued scarcity of tonnage, is falling in value. Rum perhaps is somewhat firmer, but the operations have not been of much importance, whilst of coffee the very limited quantity on hand precludes transactions of moment. Fimento is not procurable. A great deal of rain has fallen in most of the agricultural districts.
